Sex: Female	Dam: Pperuvian Ayaviri

Birthdate: 10/25/2000
Heritage: Full Peruvian Accoyo
Color: White

Adeline is a full Accoyo daughter of the legendary Pperuvian Caligula and Pperuvian Ayaviri who is also the dam of multi-Champion fawn El Nino's Accoyo Michelangelo. Adeline's production record is impressive. Her first offspring, "High Point Legacy's Elegance", is a full Accoyo fawn female who finished her show career with 6 Championships including AOBA Nationals and MAPACA. Elegance was the dominant fawn female in the 04/05' shows. Elegance's firstborn is a white female who took a 1st Place at MAPACA 2007; proving Addie's genes are dominant through her grandkids. Adeline's second offspring "High Point Invincible's Brentina" retired from the show ring taking no less than a 1st Place through her career- totaling 5 Blue Ribbons and 3 Color Championships. Her daughter Astrid Grace has all the champion qualities as well, but was never shown.

Addie is ridiculously dense and consistently shears the greatest weight on our farm. She is a "gentle giant"....peaceful, quiet, and reserved....always cooperative. She produces so much milk, she will allow crias other than her own to nurse at times as well.
